

Test scenarios

I. First page launch

A. Prerequisites:

1. FrequentFlyer web application is running.
2. User is not logged in.

B. Steps:

1. User opens FrequentFlyer web application in browser.
2. Login form appears.
3. User enters correct login data and clicks "Log in" button.

C. Expected outcome:

1. Homepage with user's status and flights history appears.
2. User's avatar and name/e-mail is shown in top-right corner.

II. Changing personal data

A. Prerequisites:

1. FrequentFlyer web application is running.
2. User is logged in.

B. Steps:

1. User opens FrequentFlyer web application in browser.
2. Homepage with user's status and flights history appears.
3. User navigates to the "Profile" tab.
4. User changes his name and address.
5. User clicks save button.

C. Expected outcome:

1. Toast message appears with text "Successfully updated your profile!".
2. After page refresh the profile data stays changed.

III. Adding ticket

A. Prerequisites:

1. FrequentFlyer web application is running.
2. User is logged in.

B. Steps:

1. User opens FrequentFlyer web application in browser.
2. Homepage with user's status and flights history appears.
3. User navigates to the "+ Add Ticket" tab.
4. User fills in ticket data.
5. User clicks add button.

C. Expected outcome:

1. Toast message appears with text "Successfully added a ticket!".
2. After changing to Homepage user can see his updated miles and details of the ticket which he just added.